Last Chance To Vote For 2007 Site Selection

Today is your last chance to become a supporting member of the 2007 Worldcon at the cheapest rate, while helping choose the location for that convention. Polling is open from 10 am until 6 pm today in the Concourse, Hynes Hall C.

Palm Beaming

To all Palm Users: There is a Palm Beam Station at the Information Desk (Hynes C–Concourse) that is continuously sending the convention program schedule and party list.

A Matter of Time

The panel on time travel will be held yesterday at 3 pm. The alternate universe panel will be held in Charlotte, North Carolina.

FANAC Fan History Scanning Booth

The FANAC scanner is finally up and running! Bring your fannish photos (or digital files) to our booth in Hall C.

The Triplanetary Gazette is the daily newsletter of Noreascon 4, the 62nd World Science Fiction Convention at the Hynes Convention Center in Boston, Massachusetts 2 – 6 September 2004

LOTR Exhibition Pass Winner

The Friday winner of the two free passes to “The Lord of the Rings Motion Picture Trilogy – The Exhibition” is Brennan Martin. Brennan may collect his passes at the Information Desk in Hynes Hall C.

Anime Room Program Changes

Galaxy Express 999 will be replaced by Night on the Galactic Railroad. (Hynes 209) Sakuna Warr will begin at today at 10 am. (Republic A in the Sheraton)

Get Retro

The Retrospective Art Exhibit may be accessed through the Art Show (Hynes, 3rd floor Ballroom). The Exhibit is keeping Art Show hours.

Visitors to the Art Show and the Retrospective Exhibit are now being asked to check all their bags outside the door. Please remember to keep your ID and your money, so that you can register to bid and can purchase items at the print shop. Please have patience as you enter and exit the Art Show.

Nobody Really Said That

Heard an odd statement, obvious non sequiter, or–gasp!–witty remark that you think bears repeating in the Triplanetary Gazette? Write it down and drop it off in the mailbox on one of our distribution kiosks or bring it to our offices in the ConCourse (Hynes, Hall C). Or you can e-mail it to us at newsletter@noreason.org if the network is up.
