

Smofcon 25

December 7-9, 2007
Boston, Massachusetts

A convention for science fiction convention-runners...who do this for fun.

In our spare time.

For no money.

But we do get glory!

Sic transit gloria mundi.

Hilton Boston Logan Airport
$118 s/d, $128 t, and $138 q

Management Secrets of Attila the Hun are all very well and good. But we think that "Marketing Secrets of Hari Seldon" are just as important in running successful science fiction conventions. So, at the 2007 Smofcon in Boston, we'll have a program emphasis on marketing, public relations, and advertising – topics relevant to all con-runners. We'll have lots of other programming, comfortable hospitality, and the gastronomic delights of Boston within easy reach. Come, join us! For the glory, of course.

Pre-registration $50 through Feb. 28, 2007; $60 through Oct. 31, 2007 (Supporting $25).

Please make check (do not send cash!) out to: MCFI, P.O. Box 1010, Framingham, MA 01701.
